Regardless of whether you are a new applicant or current card holder, you must bring the same types of documents. New applicants and current Driver's License and ID card holders must present the required documents from each of these four categories.

1. Identity and date of birth (If undocumented see dmv.vermont.gov for ID requirements)

Must provide one of the following:

- Valid, unexpired U.S. passport, certified copy of a birth certificate filed with the State Office of Vital Statistics or equivalent agency in the individual's state of birth (Birth Certificates issued by a hospital are NOT accepted)
- Consular Report of Birth Abroad (CRBA) issued by the U.S. Department of State (Form FS-240, DS-1350 or FS-545)
- Valid, unexpired Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551)
- Certificate of Naturalization issued by DHS (Form N-550 or Form N-570)
- Certificate of Citizenship (Form N-560 or Form N-561) issued by DHS
- Driver's license/identification card issued in compliance with the standards established by Real ID (cannot be expired more than one year).

2. Lawful status in the United States

The documents required for proof of identity and date of birth will also establish lawful status in the United States in most cases, provided the Vermont DMV is able to authenticate and verify the documents under existing and available verification systems. Foreign nationals must provide a passport and visa, alien registration receipt card (green card), or other proof of legal presence for inspection and copying.

3. Social Security number

Present your Social Security card. If your Social Security card is not available one of the following forms may be used in its place: W-2 form, SSA-1099 form, pay stub showing name and SSN (minimum of last 4) or a letter from the Social Security Administration indicating ineligibility to receive a Social Security number.

4. Vermont residency and current residential address (If undocumented see dmv.vermont.gov for Residency requirements)

You must present two documents that include your name and current Vermont residential address that demonstrate residency in the state of Vermont. Examples: piece of mail with current name and Vermont street address including city/town (no P.O. Boxes), utility bill (must list service address), property tax bill with physical location, signed lease, Homeowners/renters insurance (policy/proof of claim), Vermont EBT or Vermont AIM identification card.

NOTE: Your name must verify with Social Security Administration (SSA). If there have been multiple changes to your name, you must provide documentation to prove the continuity of the names. For example: marriage or civil union certificate (certified copy issued by town/city), marriage or civil union dissolution or probate court name change document.

VETERAN'S INDICATOR ON VERMONT LICENSE/ID

All Vermont residents who are veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces and are currently enlisted or were honorably discharged can choose to have a Veteran's Indicator on their Driver's License, Learner's Permit or Non-Driver ID card. There is no additional fee for the Veteran's Indicator, but all regular transaction fees will apply. Vermont Certificate of Veteran Status must be completed and approved to show proof of veteran status and submitted with the license, permit or non-driver ID application.

APPLICATION FOR ADDITION TO CHECKLIST – VERMONT VOTER REGISTRATION APPLICATION

You are eligible to vote in the town or city where you physically reside if as of Election Day, you: are a United States citizen / are a resident of Vermont / are 18 years old / take Voter's Oath. Residency for voting purposes is defined as "a person who is domiciled in the town as evidenced by intent to maintain a principal dwelling place in the town indefinitely and to return there if temporarily absent, coupled with an act or acts consistent with that intent."

You only need to take the Voter's Oath ONCE. If you were previously registered to vote in Vermont you have already taken the Voter's Oath. You can attest that you have taken the voter's oath for yourself or a DMV employee can administer the Voter's Oath to you.

You are not automatically registered to vote by completing this application—your Town or City Clerk will review your application to be sure that you meet all eligibility requirements. The Clerk will notify you in writing if your application is approved and notify you of the location of your polling place. If your application is denied, the Clerk will notify you explaining why you are not eligible and also explain how you can file an appeal to the Board of Civil Authority in your Town or City. If you have questions, you may call the Office of the Secretary of State at 802.828.2363 or visit sec.state.vt.us/elections/voters.
